Tilava ja siistikuntoinen 70-luvun retro omakotitalo kauniilla tontilla

Well-maintained spacious 70s detached house on a beautiful plot

This well-maintained detached house, built in 1973, offers comfortable accommodation on a total of 178 m² floor space, with 4 rooms, kitchen, dining room, hall, bathroom, sauna, WC and takka room. In addition, there are plenty of wardrobes and a dressing room. The house has a nice layout that can easily be adapted to your own wishes.

The house has a lovely retro style with details straight from the 70s. The house is a practical choice for a family or a couple. The property is equipped with fiber optics, making it an excellent option for remote work. Adjacent to the house is a garage for one car, which can be kept heated during the winter.

The plot, which is 0.2740 ha, is beautifully located at the edge of the forest. There is blueberry rice on the farm and a brook runs through the plot, which ripples beautifully in spring and autumn. In addition, there is a shed with plenty of space for firewood and other storage. The narrow, covered terrace at the back of the house is cozy towards the garden. There is also room for a kitchen garden for those who like gardening. The gazebo is located near the stream, against the evening sun, through the windows you have a fantastic view of Genböle village and the fields.

This object is located on the beautiful Kimito Island, where the sea, the archipelago, the fields and the forests meet harmoniously. Kimito Island is a popular summer destination, known for its small villages, summer restaurants and cafes and its many beaches.

This is a unique opportunity to acquire a home where you can enjoy peace and quiet and the beauty of nature, combined with comfort and functionality in the same package.

Feel free to get in touch and book your viewing appointment - this delightful home is just waiting for you!
